

AAWO Welcomes New Members

The Alpaca Association of Western Oregon (AAWO) is dedicated to advocating a dynamic alpaca industry in Oregon and the Pacific Northwest. Our vision is to promote opportunities for members and their families to be successful marketing alpacas and alpaca products by building the alpaca industry on all levels.

We are a group of farmers who value honesty, integrity and above all, the well-being of our alpaca herds. We are dedicated to providing ongoing events, education, fun, interaction and opportunities for alpaca owners, fiber enthusiasts and all others interested in these wonderful animals.

Your membership will help with continued public education of the alpaca industry while providing you with a voting membership and many other benefits such as AAWO sponsored spinoffs, discounted workshops and events, promotion of your farm and best of all spending time with other alpaca breeders and fiber enthusiasts.

Whether you own alpacas or not, we encourage and welcome new members to AAWO. Annual AAWO membership fees are $100.00. Simply fill out the form and mail it to the address below with your membership fee, bring it to our next monthly meeting or go online to our web site. You will find meeting dates, times and events on our web site.
